Dear Bill:

Herewith I forward to you the second comprehensive report on Project Truth which I am submitting to President Reagan today. This report documents Project Truth's activities from September through December 1982.

As this second report testifies, Project Truth has been highly successful in its mission of exposing Soviet disinformation and misdeeds and highlighting the United States' contribution to international peace and prosperity.

As you know, Project Truth was mandated by the President's directive of September 9, 1981. It has now been subsumed by the International Information Committee, per National Security Decision Directive 77 of January 15, 1983. We at USIA welcome this enhancement of Project Truth's mission within the context of inter-agency cooperation. Your encouragement and the contributions from CIA and your colleagues at State, ACDA, DOD, and NSC have ensured the success of our joint efforts.

For your information, I am also transmitting copies of this report to George Bush, Bill Clark, Ed Meese, Jim Baker, Mike Deaver, George Shultz, and Cap Weinberger.

Thank you for your continuing interest and support.

Sincerely,

Charles Z. Wick
Director

The Honorable
William J. Casey
